UNITED STATES GOLD DOLLARS.

The gold dollars are about the most desirable coins in the market, and the common dates readily sell for $2 to $2.25. It would be needless to bid less than $2 for any of these.

301	1849—Closed wreath, good.
302	1849—Open wreath, very good.
303	1850—Good.
304	1851—C mint, fine, very rare.

308	1853—Good, loop attached.
309	1853—C mint, very good, very rare.
310	1854—Small type, very good.
311	1854—Small type, good, loop attached.
312	1855—Fine.
313	1855—Good, very slightly bent.
314	1855—O mint, very good, scarce.
315	1856—Slanting 5, very good.
316	1856—Upright 5, extra fine, slight scratch before face, rare.
317	1857—Very good.

- 318 1859—C mint, broad milled border, very good, very rare.
 319 1859—D mint; obv. is very good, rev. good; very rare; record above $8.
 320 1859—S mint, scalloped on edge, otherwise fine; very rare.
